CLASS PROPHECY OF 1951

Last week, approximately ten years after the graduation of the class of 1951 from dear old Wilton High School, I attended a lovely party given by Ruth Jeanne Allen at her summer home in honor of Julia Mae Montague, who was Miss America of 1961. Many of the seniors of 1951 were present. We compared notes and learned what all our former classmates were doing. I discovered that:

E. B. Goss has just completed his course in "Hell-Driving" and has begun his fast moving career. Ella Grey O'neal has begun working at the Burlington Mill at Franklinton, N. C.

Malda Gray has completed her course in nursing at Watts Hospital and is now steadily employed as a nurse. Winston Parrott is the supervisor of farms for Durham Realty Company.

Graham Harris, Jr. is now a colonel in the U. S. Army. Hixie Sanford is patiently waiting for him to be discharged so she can become a house wife.

Harold Gooch has opened a laundry named, "YOU WRINKLE AND MESS 'EM, WE CLEAN AND PRESS 'EM", in the fastest growing city in the south, Wilton!

Troy Freddy and Johnny Brummitt have opened a cafeteria and hotel named, "MEET, EAT AND SLEEP", at Oxford, North Carolina.

Hollin Blevins and E. G. Turner are the new owners of "THE SECOND NATIONAL BANK" of Oxford.

Billy Wheelous, a Major in the U. S. Army, returned to the U. S. yesterday with his lovely Korean Bride.

Veller Hicks has completed her business course at the Croft Business school and is now a secretary with plenty of admirers.

Nell Wheelous and Lucille Tippett have returned from a world-wide tour. Nell is a dietician and Lucille is her secretary.

Joyce Harris, Helen Rose Adcock, and Peggy Wheeler have returned from Europe, where they have been working on their latest picture, "FIRE-FLY BABY", with Lucille Mitchell as their competent secretary.

Mae Tucker and Jewel Turner are famous singing stars for the Eagle Studios, Hollywood, California.

Wiley Ayscue, Jr. is running a "HOT-ROD" race track near Franklinton, North Carolina.

Class Prophet,
Wiley Ayscue, Jr.

HISTORY

September 5, 1939 was a memorable day for thirty-eight children of this community, for on that day, we entered Wilton High School. There was a great resemblance of those six-year-olds to tadpoles. As the tadpole, we grew rapidly at first learning a b c's; droning one, two, three; slowly learning to spell cat and rat; and laboriously printing our names. Maybe Miss Ethel thought we were another innocent bunch, but we soon gained our own personality. Miss Bragg and the second grade extended us on, with writing a speciality. Miss Catlett introduced us to English, (Did we feel big!) and complicated arithmetic. In the fourth grade, this crowd tried its hand at geography, didn't like it, and as humans do, pried into other subjects with Miss Evelyn Veasey. I wonder if Miss Dean remembers that "big" box of candy she received from us at Christmas. The tadpoles were growing internally, but still having fun. Picnics were news to us in the sixth grade, and I expect Miss Marie Jenkins thought we would never tire of them. Miss Ruth welcomed us into grade seven, and pulling off our adventurous days, we settled down for a stay. But tadpoles wiggle, and we were in the eighth with Miss Lyon commanding the activities. Before long, community people were talking of our growing up, teenage awkwardness, and dislike of study. The metamorphoses was almost complete.

None of us will ever forget that first confusing day of high school. What it was all about we didn't know. Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Kimberly, Mrs. Husketh, and Mr. Cassidy helped the willing muscles of our legs learn to jump. Feeling as great as regular voters, we elected Peggy Wheeler, president; Johnny Brummitt, vice president; and Ruth Jeanne Allen, secretary. Treasurer was tacked on to this, but our money begging days came later.

We continued agriculture and home economics in grade ten, mixed with required subjects. Mr. Carswell, Mrs. Ben Averett, and Mrs. Bonders came into view. Class officers were: president, Joyce Wheeler; vice president, Johnny Brummitt; Harold Gooch was secretary; and Julia Mae Montague was our banker.

Juniors! Here things really buzzed. Maybe our lessons came second, but we were really engrossed in everything. Selling magazines, helping in a barbecue supper, ordering class rings, (What an argument!) and planning a banquet honoring the seniors were our high-lighted activities. Graham Harris, Jr., E. G. Turner, Johnny Brummitt, and Julia Mae Montague were the leaders. Miss Meador, Mrs. Sanderford, and former friends urged us onward.

September 1, 1950 found twenty-four bug-eyed frogs leaping into the lime-light. Mrs. Husketh drew reins on the leaps and brought us to hard work.

Heretofore officers had been something we said we had, but this year we found their purposes. In the honored position of president, Graham Harris, Jr. took over, followed by Winston Parrott, Ruth Jeanne Allen, and Malda Gray as other officers.

Musical guidance has come from Miss Breedlove, words of wisdom from Mr. Veasey and character building from them all. For twelve years the Wilton community has been patient with us, even helping our leaps and bounds.

We've weathered diagramming sentences; being kept in; arguments and thrills over choosing caps and gowns, invitations, diplomas, and rings; the memorization of the Gettysburg Address, and have brought through it all some wonderful, wonderful memories, which will some day shine forth after the thrills (New York!), adventures, and tears still to come.

Now, we stand full grown bull-frogs, the greatest of all, with strong legs, great eyes, and the loudest croak in the pond.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

1. State of North Carolina
2. County of Granville
3. Township of Brassfield

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundered and Fifty-one of Wilton High School do hereby declare this our last Will and Testament.

Item I. To dear old Wilton High School we leave our love and affection.

Item II. To our superintendent, Mr. D. N. Hix, our principal, Mr. F. L. Veasey, and other faculty members we leave our respect and affection.

Item III. To the grades to follow us, we leave the school hoping of course, that you will have great success in maintaining its high standards. We sincerely hope that everything you do will make this school even better.

Item IV. The separate bequests made by each senior are as follows: To Nell Howell, Ella Grey O'neal, Mae Tucker, and Jewel Turner leave their gay laughter.

Lucille Tippett and Billy Wheeler leave their excess pounds to Mary Ann Vaughan.

Joyce Harris leaves three inches of her height to Donald Woodlief.

To J. R. Bridges, Johnny Brummitt and Troy Freddy leave their ability to play basketball.

E. G. Turner leaves bus number 20 to Ronald Cash.

Wiley Ayscue leaves his typing skill to Wilson Nance and Charles O'neal.

Veller Hicks and Hollin Blevins leave their quiet ways to Ann Brummitt.

Lucille Mitchell and Helen Rose Adcock leave their ability to play basketball to Darlene Emory.

Ruth Jeanne Allen leaves her extra "A's" to Billy Turner and Ralph Lane.

Harold Gooch, Graham Harris, Jr. and Winston Parrot leave their ability to play baseball to Carol Bragg.

Malda Gray leaves her talent for singing and playing the piano to Betty Wynn.

Nell Wheelous leaves her French book to Frank Strother.

Julia Mae Montague and Hixie Sanford leave their pleasing personalities to Louise Wheeler.

I, Peggy Wheeler, will my surplus points in English to Rufus Wynn.

In witness whereof, we the Senior Class do set our hands, and seal to this Will on this dramatic sixteenth day of October, nineteen hundered and fifty.
